

Lowering Feed Costs with Pasture

- Pastures lower feed cost, improve animal health, and increase net return.

- Intensify grazing mgt.
- Rotate pastures daily.
- Keep pastures actively growing, don't overgraze.
- Use a back-fence to prevent re-grazing.
- Develop a grazing plan.
- Summer annuals offer an alternative feed source.

More Information:

- Pasture network (graze_it_up@yahoo.com)
- Coordinated pasture walks (massgrass.org)
- Grazing School Saturday August 9, 2008 (massgrass.org)
- Mass Aggie Livestock & Equine Seminars (massaggie.org)

Stephen Herbert, Sidney Lyford, Carrie Sears, and Sarah Weis, Depts. of Plant, Soil, and Insect Sciences and Veterinary and Animal Sciences